

ASQUITH STATEMENT REASSURES BRITAIN

EASIER FEELING DEVELOPS REGARDING ULSTER CRISIS FOLLOWING RECENT PANIC.

CABINET WILL REPORT

Explanation to House of Commons is Eagerly Awaited by All Citizens of United Kingdom.

London, Eng., March 23.—A much easier feeling has been created in the British Isles by the reassuring statement given by Premier Asquith to the effect that the troop movement in Ulster had been ordered only as a precautionary measure for the protection of government property. The inference is generally drawn that the government's intentions toward army officers who did not desire to serve against the Orange men had been misinterpreted.

The public in all parts of the United Kingdom awaited eagerly today the explanation of the cabinet in the house of commons to which place the Irish controversy has been transferred.

In some quarters there was an inclination to believe that Gen. Sir Arthur Paget, commander-in-chief in Ireland, had placed a much graver interpretation upon the government's intentions as to the feelings of army officers in the Irish garrison than was intended.

Belfast, Ire., March 23.—The capital of Ulster, in which are the headquarters of the provisional government of the province is today perhaps the least excited city outwardly in the United Kingdom. No more troops have arrived here and none are expected. The residents look to London and the Curragh camp for their news.

London, March 23.—"Misunderstanding" was the keynote of Premier Asquith's explanation today of the crisis brought about by the resignation of army officers when their regiments were ordered to prepare to proceed to Ulster.

Speaking in the house of commons the prime minister made it clear, however, that officers and men of the British army refusing to obey orders in connection with the opposition of Ulster to the introduction of home rule for Ireland, were liable to dismissal.

Details of the revolt of the army officers against service in Ulster had been awaited with strained expectation by the whole country. Only brief statements were forthcoming from the secretary for war and the premier and the gist of these was that the whole affair was due to "misunderstanding."

As far as the minister's statement can be interpreted the "misunderstanding" arose through the general Sir Arthur Paget, placing wrong conclusions on the order given him by the war office and telling his subordinates they were to be employed in quelling an uprising in Ulster.

The number of officers who resigned their commissions, the extent of the dissatisfaction in the army and other details were not disclosed.

Col. Seely was jeered during his explanation.

Law's Attitude. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, had stated that "nothing can save the army now except a declaration that officers will not be compelled to engage in civil war against their wish." When he said that officers refusing to serve against Ulster were "not to be considered as deserters," the Ulster labor members shouted: "How about strikes?"

The whole affair generally is accepted as demonstrating that the army cannot be counted upon to fight Sir Edward Carson's volunteers in the event of a civil war. On the other hand, the Ulster labor members declare that this means a collapse of the home rule project and express their belief that the government may soon relinquish office by its own choice.

Ulster Volunteers Ready. The Ulster Volunteers, 110,000 strong under Sir Edward Carson, are ready to plunge Ireland into a bloody war. With a fund of over $5,000,000 for their disposal, the volunteers have been training their army for weeks, and now have a powerful, well equipped, well drilled force.

War seems inevitable. The government has announced that it will not back down from its home rule program. The Ulsterites are equally determined. A thousand armed troops have just been poured into the counties of Ulster province from the rest of Ireland to meet any hostile movement on the part of the rebels. A picked force among the Ulster Volunteers has been placed under arms subject to orders for immediate action.

Each County a Unit. Decentralization has been the system of organization of the Ulster Volunteers. Each county forms a separate unit. There are sixty-five battalions, of which each contains 1,000 men. The volunteers have 400 motorcycles, 200 motorcars and a complete system of communication by flags, drums and telegraphs.

Twenty thousand rifles according to Colonel Curragh, have been distributed in parcels, each containing five to selected men, so that wholesale seizure of the weapons would be impossible.

While a small part of north Ireland is clamoring against home rule, all the rest of the country is clamoring for it. Ulster has a population of 1,000,000. About 3,000,000 people live in the other Irish provinces.

How Settlement Stands. Only six of the ten counties in Ulster oppose home rule, while sentiment is almost evenly divided in the remaining four.

The fight against home rule must be made now, if at all. The home rule bill has twice passed the English house of commons and has twice been voted down by the house of lords. But if it passes the house of commons once more before May 9, 1914, it will become a law, despite the veto of the lords.

Premier Asquith is determined that the bill shall pass for the third time before the close of April. So if war comes, it will start at the latest, within a very few weeks.

NATIONALIST LEADER COUNSELS CALMNESS

John Redmond, Irish Nationalist leader in the British parliament, has urged the home rule partisans to desist from all violence and to remain calm during the present crisis. At his request a Nationalist parade arranged for Sunday in Londonderry was abandoned.

ILLINOIS STIRRED BY A SALOON FIGHT

Temperance Question is Issue in Many Large Cities, Including Springfield, Rockford, Freeport.

Chicago, Ill., March 23.—With election day scarcely more than a week distant, Illinois today started on the last lap of a political contest, while though no great state national offices are at stake, rivals in tensely even a presidential election being held.

The question before the voters is: Shall the sale of liquor be barred by approximately 300 townships in which local option petitions have been filed? "Anti-saloon" forces in most instances raised the question and in many localities a house to house canvass was begun today, lining up the voters.

The opponents of the saloon look for victory in most of the townships through the votes of the newly enfranchised women. Several of the larger cities in the state also vote on the liquor question on township election day, April 7, among them being Springfield, Rockford, Canton and Freeport.

In thirty-six counties there will be no vote on the liquor question. The largest of these is in the northern part of the state. South of a line from East St. Louis to Danville, only fifteen townships will vote.

MITCHELL TESTIFIES ON MINERS' STRIKE

Declares Miners at Butte, Montana Better Paid Than Michigan Men, To Investigating Committee.

Washington, March 23.—John Mitchell, the labor leader, today testified about conditions in the Michigan copper mines before the house committee investigating the Calumet strike. Of comparisons of conditions in the Michigan field and at Butte, Mont., Mr. Mitchell declared, "life and labor conditions in Butte are much superior to life and labor conditions in the Michigan copper fields."

He said the Butte miners were paid on the basis of the selling price of copper with the minimum wage of $3.50 a day, had an eight hour day, were not forced to trade in company stores or live in company houses.

Chairman Taylor pointed out the contention of the Michigan operators that the "P. M." was founded on "red socialism." Mr. Mitchell said that the socialist party was organized and circulating a newspaper in the copper country before any attempt was made to unionize the laborers.

"I would seem," he said, "that the opposition of the mine owners is not against the political socialist, but against organized employees."

STRIKING TRAINMEN GIVEN THEIR TIME

Pennsylvania Road Officials Take Drastic Action in Handling Division Strike.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 23.—Supt. A. C. Mitchell of the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad today declared forfeited the job of freight trainmen who Saturday struck and tied up the freight service.

MURPHY IS OUSTED FROM ORGANIZATION FOR POLICY'S SAKE

Dropping of Boss Means Downfall of Tammany Hall in New York City. Politics.

New York, March 23.—The complete downfall of Tammany Hall as a political factor in Greater New York is forecast as the result of the dropping of Charles F. Murphy and several of his district leaders from the roster of the National Democratic Club, the greatest organization in the city. But it was not generally known that the dropping of Murphy meant an actual money loss to the club. By forfeiting their membership, Murphy and his henchmen lost their equities in the property of the National Democratic Club, which is worth considerably more than a million dollars.

Non-payment of dues was the ostensible reason why Murphy, Thomas F. Foley, James E. Gaffney and about one hundred lesser Tammany lights were ousted from the club. But the real reason was that the followers of President Wilson are now in control of the Democracy of New York. The fight for Murphy's removal as a member of the organization was engineered by Edward J. O'Dwyer, chief clerk of the City Court, who is an ardent Wilson adherent. O'Dwyer is president of the club. Some time ago he was asked if he and his friends would withdraw from the National Democratic Club if they were defeated in their efforts to put the Wigwag men out. O'Dwyer replied that he for one would not quit the club, because it would mean financial loss.

It would be very unwise to withdraw, O'Dwyer said. "The clubhouse and other property of the organization are very valuable, worth more than a million dollars, in fact. Individual members have an equity in a higher value, weight as the measure of the car load."

Through the strategy of O'Dwyer and his readiness to force the fight, the anti-Murphy men were in a desperate fight. Murphy, however, his most influential followers and the Wilson men say they have obtained complete control of the organization.

"I took this action," O'Dwyer said, "because Murphy and his Tammany leaders are detrimental to the interests of the party, to good government and to the club." "Will they get back if they pay up?" he was asked. "They won't if they have anything to say about it," he replied.

As an extra slap at Tammany Hall, the meeting of the Club's governors who ousted Murphy, elected to membership Governor William C. Glynn. Known to be with the president, he recently informed Murphy that he no longer was acceptable as leader of the New York State Democracy. Dudley Field Malone, the young collector of the United States, the scene of the Wilson campaign, was also present.

Paralyzed in his efforts, Murphy, however, is still a powerful force. He is a member of the Wilson campaign, and was rewarded by Mayor Mitchell with the commission of the city of New York. He is also a member of the Wilson campaign, and was rewarded by Mayor Mitchell with the commission of the city of New York.

Divisions Radical. The cleavage between Wilson Democrats and Murphy Democrats has been sharply defined since the club incident and close observers believe that war to the knife is on, the President being determined to dominate the party in the Empire State. It is predicted, therefore, that the Wilson men will be the victors in the Wilson campaign.

Drop Many Others. Seventeen of the twenty-seven governors who attended the meeting voted with O'Dwyer. It was the original plan for the Administration men simply to drop Murphy, Gaffney, Foley and a few others, whom they had real objections. Tom Smith, however who led the fight against the ousting of his chief, spoiled the plan by insisting that all members who were delinquent in their dues, should be dropped. The men who were threatened forced to put through a blanket resolution dropping more than 100 members. The club has a membership of 750 and its home is one of the conflict and confusion of the famous Fifth Avenue.

Hold Complete Control. "It is all right," said O'Dwyer. "We are in control of the organization now and were not hurt by the blanket resolution. We can reinstate such dropped members as we desire to have in and can easily bar Murphy and his friends from re-instatement."

"We anti-Murphy men have known all along that the members have an individual equity in the club property which with its wide frontage on Fifth Avenue and Fifth Street, is worth considerable money."

"The Tammany men evidently overlooked that feature of the fight, and in their haste to oust Murphy, left themselves open to being dropped."

WORLD'S DENTISTS AT CHICAGO CONVENTION WHICH BEGINS TODAY

Chicago, March 23.—Dentists from all parts of the world came to Chicago today to attend the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Illinois State Dental Society, which is expected to be the meeting of its kind ever held, preparations having been made to receive 2,500 dentists. ### PRESIDENT ANXIOUS FOR A PROMPT VOTE ON TOLL EXEMPTION

Wilson Believes Democrats in House Will Stand By Him on Panama Canal Legislation.

Washington, March 23.—While President Wilson has no doubt about the passage of the administration bill to repeal the Panama canal tolls exemption, he is anxious that it be brought to a vote promptly. He has been advised that a vote probably will be taken as soon as the business and harbors bill has been disposed of.

Favors Free Debate. The president denied a charge made on the floor of the senate that he had attempted to limit the toll debate in the house. He let it be known that while he had no part in suggesting a rule to limit debate, he had hoped there would be one.

The president referred to the controversy as a difference of opinion among democrats and pointed out that a majority of the house democrats really never had voted for the toll exemption and that the act was passed by a coalition of republicans with a minority of democrats.

Makes Freight Ruling. The interstate commerce commission today announced this principle which applies to all freight traffic: A carload shipment of goods which is reasonably adapted to the needs of the carriers and the great majority of shippers will not be increased because one shipper by the expenditure of exceptional efforts, and exposed himself to a load more heavily than can his competitors; neither will this commission under such circumstances prescribe a lower rate than 100 pounds conditional upon the use of a higher weight as the measure of the car load.

Anti-Trust Legislation. No suggestion has come to President Wilson from congress to have anti-trust legislation postponed. The president called today that he saw no reason for such a postponement, but that on the contrary the trust program was rapidly being worked into shape.

WORDS OF PRESIDENT CHEER DYING YOUTH

Twelve-Year-Old Boy, Whose Life is Slowly Ebbing Away, Has Wish to See President, Granted.

Washington, March 23.—A pale, smiling lad of 12, lay on a stretcher in the Blue Room of the White House early today and beside sat the president of the United States. The scene was a touching one, the kind response of President Wilson to the little boy's plea.

Paralyzed in his efforts, Murphy, however, is still a powerful force. He is a member of the Wilson campaign, and was rewarded by Mayor Mitchell with the commission of the city of New York. He is also a member of the Wilson campaign, and was rewarded by Mayor Mitchell with the commission of the city of New York.

The river referred to Mr. Denier, the river of prosperity and good service to your customers.

The rowing is easy and the oars are Co-operative Advertising. You pull only one of these oars—but you must pull in harmony with the other fellows.

When the manufacturers of a nationally distributed product comes into the newspapers of your town with his announcements, he is bending on the oar to make business for you.

The rowing is going to be pleasant if you will row with him.

In other words, let the people know you have the goods. Tell about them in the newspapers. If you can—but certainly show them in your window and display them on your counters.

It shows good faith on the part of the manufacturer to make a market right in your own town—he is helping you as well as himself.

When you co-operate, you are adding to your own profits—you are increasing the volume of your sales and lessening your selling expenses.

ROOSEVELT'S PARTY HAS A BAD MISHAP IN BRAZILIAN WILD

Meagre Reports Indicate That Colonel Is Safe But Expedition's Equipment is Entirely Lost.

New York, March 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's family and friends were anxiously awaiting further advice today regarding an accident in which his party lost its entire equipment in the rapids of a Brazilian river. While no concern, it is stated, was felt for the safety of the former president, it was desirable to learn just how and when the accident occurred and whether the expedition would be abandoned, especially as the party was so far from a base where new equipment could be acquired.

Get Brief Message. The news of the mishap came in a brief message from Anthony Fiala, a member of the party. It was dated at Santarem, Brazil, yesterday, and read: "My dear Mr. Roosevelt, I am writing to you by the express of the day. Telephone my wife of my safety. Santarem is in the state of Para at the confluence of the Tapajós river with the Amazon, and the dispatch was sent by the express of the day. The accident in all probability occurred on an unknown river which Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., today said his father in a letter to him had called the Rio Duva or 'river of doubt.' Col. Roosevelt in a letter written on Jan. 16 from Tapirapuan in Mato Grosso province in the south central part of Brazil, and received last week by Mr. C. Chapman of the American Museum of Natural History, said he expected to explore this unknown river."

On Canoe Journey. Col. Roosevelt does not state in any of his letters what means of transportation he would use in descending the unknown river. It is believed that nothing heavier than canoes could have been carried on the five hundred mile journey on horseback from the headquarters of the Paraguay to the "river of doubt." The specimens of natural history collected by the party on its trip up the Parana and the Paraguay rivers are safely in a warehouse here, as a colonel stated he would ship them before he reached the Brazilian wilds. The loss in the rapids outside of food, arms, lamp material and instruments, undoubtedly included the birds and animals killed and photographs taken from the time the party started on the horseback trip over the plateau.

JAPAN IN MIDST OF POLITICAL UPHEAVAL

Emperor Protrudes Diet When They Fail to Agree on Navy Appropriations.

Tokio, March 23.—The Japanese diet was prorogued today by the emperor owing to the inability of the house of peers and house of representatives to agree on the appropriations for the navy. ### SAYS LITERARY CRITICISM IS WANTING IN AMERICA

New Haven, Conn., March 23.—"Literary criticism in American book reviews is lacking in good taste and intellectual candor," declared Prof. Bliss Perry of Harvard in the first of his Bromley lectures on journalism at Yale. "Criticism is influenced by the desire of the publisher and the critic. Most criticism is done by ill-paid and untrained journalists."

The courts insist on labels for food, he said. "There is no pure food law for books. This indiscriminate advertising will ultimately defeat itself."

SCARLET FEVER AT VALE: NO EPIDEMIC IS FEARED

PERSISTENT RUMORS PREDICT THE FALL OF FRENCH CABINET

Entanglements Arising Out of Rochette Case May End in Wholesale Resignations.

Paris, March 23.—Many rumors were current in political circles today as to the probable fall of the French cabinet as a sequel to the revelations of government influence having been brought to bear to procure appointments of the trial of Henri Rochette, alleged swindler.

In the lobbies of the chamber of deputies and the senate it was said that announcement would be made shortly of the resignation of Albert Le Brun, minister for the colonies; René Viviani, minister of public instruction; and Andre Magnot, under-secretary of state for marine.

It was argued among members that in case the cabinet continues in office it will probably be only because the opposition groups are unwilling to elect a government until after the elections.

Caillaux Makes Denial. Joseph Caillaux, former minister of finance, at his own request came before the chamber of deputies committee on the Rochette case. He denied that he had either directly or indirectly required Maurice Bernard, the lawyer representing Rochette, to ask for a postponement of the trial. He said: "I did nothing more than transmit to Ernest Monis, then premier, the inquiries made by Rochette's lawyers as to whether the government would oppose a postponement of the trial."

A mutiny was threatened today among the eight hundred women incarcerated in the St. Lazare prison, all of whom object to the granting of so many concessions to Madame Caillaux. The punishment cells of the jail are filled with refractory women who continue to shriek protests against "discrimination."

Attorneys representing a number of the prisoners are preparing a petitionary made representations today to the ministry of justice demanding that the cells should be heated and that better food should be supplied to their clients.

PAYS DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDERING MAN

California—Hanged in Massachusetts Jail for Shooting Soap Merchant in 1912.

Boston, Mass., March 23.—William A. Dorr, a convict, was hanged today to pay the death penalty in the electric chair at Charlestown state prison, for the murder of George E. Marsh, wealthy Lynn, Mass., soap manufacturer. On the afternoon of April 11, 1912, Dorr was in the company of search for E. Marsh. The wealthy soap maker had last been seen when he left his home the morning preceding. About 5:30 in the evening his disappearance was brought to the attention of police.

Marsh's body was found in the scrub growth of the Lynn marshes at the edge of a sharp curve on the boulevard between Lynn and Salem. He had been struck by an automobile and killed. An investigation at the morgue, however, showed a bullet hole in Marsh's temple. For a week the police of Lynn and Boston were engaged in a mystifying search for the murderer.

CONFERENCE BETWEEN LIND AND HUERTA'S MINISTER BRINGS NO DEVELOPMENTS.

STILL DELAY ATTACK

Villa's Army at Torreon Ready for Battle While Officers Prepare Plans for Engagement.

Washington, March 23.—Information thus far received by President Wilson indicates that the parleys at Vera Cruz between John Lind and Senor Forriolo Rojas, Huerta's minister for foreign affairs, have not reached the stage of formal negotiations or definite proposals. The president told callers today that nothing of importance had developed. Incidentally the president denied that Charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy would resign unless there were on account of ill health, and he hoped that would not be necessary.

At Scene of Action. Bernadillo, Mex., March 23.—Officers from the extreme front returned today after viewing some of the federal fortifications through powerful field glasses. They reported that the defenses were elaborate and laid out according to the latest approved methods so that troops may move from trench to trench without exposing themselves.

Fresh earth, the appearance of which seemed so artificial, was undisputed to mark the lurking places of the enemy's big guns. Some of the barbed wire entanglements were visible through the rarified air. Troops continued to pour into the city from the extreme front. Practically all of the supplies from Yermo now are here.

No Fighting Yet. El Paso, March 23.—Published reports that the rebels began an attack on the Gomez, Palacio and Lerdo, important suburbs of Torreon, yesterday were without official confirmation early today either here or in Juarez. The last received at 1:00 a. m. today when the Juarez telegraph office closed, was that there had been no fighting.

How FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use.

So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by J. P. Baker & Son.

ELEVATING SERMON BY FATHER MCCANN DELIVERED SUNDAY

Milwaukee Priest Gives Members of St. Patrick's Congregation Good Instruction.

Reverend Father McCann of Milwaukee gave the members of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic congregation a sermon on "The Providence of the Almighty" Sunday morning at the late mass.

Taking his text from the gospel of the day, and referring to that story of the distribution of the loaves and fishes, Father McCann stated that this was but an exemplification of the providence that God exhibits in his care for his children.

"We have been gifted with the free use of our will, and it remains in us whether or not we shall be solicitous for the welfare of our immortal souls, but the great Father of us all has always given us his prophets to guide us in the paths of right, and our ministers to instruct us in the ways that are good."

Even in the days when the people raised up false idols and worshipped false gods, the Almighty in his infinite mercy sent prophets to lead his beloved children into the paths of rectitude. His feeling reached its greatest culmination when he sent his own Son, Jesus Christ, to earth to raise up a living church which would unify the people and guide all into the everlasting kingdom of eternal bliss. In this church he established functional trusts which were to govern all Christians.

"While it is not within the province of all to become identical good and faithful in their actions, all must follow the truth and the fundamental. Like in the days before Christ came to earth there were guides to direct the peoples into the true paths, just so today are there guides in the person of the ministers of the church. It is to watch over the flocks and be in a measure responsible to the Father for the works of each."

"Be thou solicitous for your own spiritual welfare, for although you may live according to your own desires, unless you are guided by those whose life has been consecrated to the work of caring for your welfare, you are sure to be led astray."

FARM PRODUCE WILL BE TAKEN BY MAIL

Butter and Eggs Shipped Direct to Consumer is Latest Plan of Postal Authorities.

Rock county residents will be interested to learn that preliminary steps were taken by the postoffice department on Sunday to effect its plan for reducing the cost of living by having the parcel post carry the products of the farm directly to the door of the consumer.

Ten cities were selected to begin the work of establishing direct connections between producer and consumer. Postmaster General Burleson has also issued an order permitting the use of crates and boxes for butter, eggs, poultry, vegetables and fruit shipped by parcel post.

Get Shippers' List. Orders went on Sunday to the postmasters at Boston, Atlanta, St. Louis, San Francisco, Baltimore, Detroit, La Crosse, Lynn, Mass., Rock Island, Ill., directing them to receive the names of persons who are willing to supply farm products in retail quantities by parcel post. Printed lists of these names, showing kind and quantity of commodity available, will be distributed among town and city patrons.

"By the use of the lists," said First Assistant Postmaster General Roper on Sunday, "the consumer will be able to get in touch with a farmer who will fill his weekly orders for butter and eggs and other farm produce. The consumer will receive the produce fresh from the country and the personal relationship established will no doubt tend to improve the quality. The farmer will be relieved of carrying his produce to market as the rural carrier will make daily connections at the farmer's own door of these retail shipments to city consumers."

Solves Hamper Question. "The point has been raised that difficulties will be experienced in the return of hampers and other containers. The farmer may use inexpensive hampers, whose value would not warrant their return, or he may use the higher grade hampers for which he may include an additional charge to be credited to the consumer upon the return of the hamper by parcel post.

"The postmaster general has the firm conviction that this plan is the one thing necessary to enable the people of this country to enjoy the potential benefits of the parcel post. No one has ever questioned the possibility of reducing the cost of living by establishing direct relations between the ultimate consumer and the original producer."

WANTED TO KNOW
The Truth About Grape-Nuts Food.

It doesn't matter so much what you hear about a thing, it's what you know that counts. And correct knowledge is most likely to come from personal experience.

"About a year ago," writes a N. Y. man, "I was bothered by indigestion, especially during the forenoon. I tried several remedies without any permanent improvement."

"My breakfast usually consisted of oatmeal, steak or chops, bread, coffee and some fruit."

"Hearing so much about Grape-Nuts I concluded to give it a trial and find out if all I heard of it was true."

"So I began with Grape-Nuts and cream, soft boiled eggs, toast, a cup of Postum and some fruit. Before the end of the first week I was rid of the acidity of the stomach and felt much relieved."

"By the end of the second week all traces of indigestion had disappeared and I was in first rate health once more. Before beginning this course of diet, I never had any appetite for lunch, but now I can enjoy the meal at noon time."

producer. A complete means for such direct transportation was provided for the first time by the establishment of the domestic parcel post, but there has been lacking an agency by means of which the individual purchaser could get in touch with the individual producer. The postmaster general's plan is designed to provide this agency for the most economical distribution of those products which are consumed in the form and condition in which they are produced."

Police Have Been Working Under Merit Liberal City Regulation Declares Chief Ransom.

Chief of Police E. H. Ransom, who has followed the recent school board investigation into the conduct of the high schools boys with considerable interest, in a statement to the Gazette calls attention to the section in the city ordinances, which governs the entrance of minors into pool and billiard halls. The police department, he said, had been working under this provision, although it had been said to conflict with the state law on the subject.

Section 2 of Chapter 7 of the ordinances reads as follows: "No keeper of any such room or place (billiard and pool room or shooting gallery) shall permit any minor to play any game upon any such table or alley, or shoot in any gallery kept by him, without having obtained a written consent therefore from a parent or guardian of such minor and in case of prosecution under this section the burden of proof to show such consent shall be upon the defendant; nor shall he permit any minor to loiter in his place of business after having been notified by a parent or guardian of such minor not to allow such minor to do so."

Section 4575 of the statutes reads: "Any owner or keeper of any billiard table, pool table, pigeonhole table or bowling alley kept for gain, or any agent or servant of such owner or keeper in charge thereof, who shall allow or in any manner permit any minor to play any game thereon shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than ten days or by fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars."

Chief Ransom stood ready to investigate the published statement of Mr. Bokout that minors were being served in saloons, but the latter declared that he had stated that he believed that such conditions existed and that he had no specific case in mind.

WELL, WHAT DO YOU SUPPOSE MABEL'S BEEN UP TO?

Sport Snap Shots

Some wild and fanciful sport scribe has dreamed: "Wouldn't it be a joke if the St. Louis Cardinals, Browns and Reds all won pennants next year? Wouldn't it amuse you to death if the Reds should sign Bill Tatt?"

From the south comes the rumor that the Cardinals are having some trouble in getting into form. Any comment at all in this connection would be rather good and one can hardly suppress the natural query as to why the Cards should ever get into form.

They have two regular man eaters in the field this spring well worthy of playing on such a team. Pitchers George Boehler and Willie Schultz have won the fear and respect of their teammates, especially when they are batting against them. In one game Boehler managed to beat three batters severely and Schultz broke the arms of two players.

Joe Birmingham, Nap manager, isn't exactly raving about the bumpy southern climate. The Naps have not had the very loveliest weather wherein to train this spring. "Next season we're going to slip one over on the weather person and train in Nova Scotia," says the jovial Mr. Birmingham. "The only pleasant thing I have seen in the south thus far this spring is the train that takes us back north," adds Birmy.

Several of Charlie Herzog's Reds are quite daffy over the tango. They had not been in their southern camp two days when they discovered a room in the hotel with a nice slick waxen floor and a piano, too, in a room adjoining. And then they discovered two colored persons who were clever at piano and hand music. Every evening after dinner they tango till they're blue under the eyes. Herzog doesn't object to the idea. It's hot stuff for their legs and wind and also provides a harmless and healthful entertainment.

Bat Nelson has recently returned from the land of his progenitors and something in the climate of dear old Denmark seems to have indicated Bat's already well developed notion of his fistic worth. Scarcely had he landed when the Battling Dane assured a group of reporters that he could handle the stuffing out of anyone his weight on earth and maybe a few a bit heavier. And not only that, but he plans to make preparations to prove it. It will be recalled that after a long and windy argument on the sport pages Bat Nelson and Ad Wolgast got together to settle their little difference and Bat was pretty thoroughly trounced. However, he can lick anyone his weight on earth, he says, and that would seem to include his arch-enemy Wolgast. Judging from the form Ad displayed in his recent go with Willie Ritchie, Bat Nelson would show rare judgment to leave Ad Wolgast considerably alone.

CHAMPS WILL LEAVE ON WEDNESDAY NOON FOR STATE TOURNEY

Team is Confident of Repeating 1913 Performance—Large Number to Attend Finals.

With the tenth annual Wisconsin state high school basketball tournament, but three days off, the Janesville quintet of champion performers are confident of upsetting the dope now in the atmosphere of the basketball world, that says the Janesville team will be easy winners at the state meet.

There is a general opinion, that Janesville is in a class by itself. Coach Curtis feels that his team this year is equal, if not better, than the 1913 champs. Some believe that such a statement is a radical one to make, but Curtis sticks to it, and declares that when comparing the teams entered, the present stars will stand more of a show in winning the title, than did the 1913 quintet.

The team will depart for Appleton on Wednesday noon at 12:45 over the Northwestern road. This is the same time that the 1911, 1912, and 1913 teams left for the state meet. Preparations for a rousing send-off have not as yet been completed, but will be given later.

After overcoming many hardships, the champions are in fine condition for the meet. Curtis is positive that his men are going to bring some surprises, and he regrets that La Crosse and Madison highs are not going to be in the tourney.

Some are of the belief, through a guess, that Janesville will meet either Menomonie or Cumberland in the opener on Thursday. The officials at Lawrence college will select the combatants by Wednesday noon, so that when the team leaves Janesville they will perhaps know who their first opponents will be.

If the champs remain in the finals, at least fifty from Janesville are going to make the trip. Supporters will be lacking even in strange territory Saturday night if the team can pull away with the first two victories. The highs have a brilliant record so far this season, and are after three more wins. They have won eleven games and lost three, and in summing up all scores, have defeated 533 against 244 for their opponents.

COMPLETING CARD FOR BOXING BOUTS

Signing Boxers for Preliminaries for Exhibition of Local Club on April First.

George Ibric, president of the Bow City Athletic club, was in Milwaukee today, completing the card of boxing bouts for the club's second exhibition at the Myers theatre on April first. Two eight-round preliminaries will be staged as curtain raisers to the big battle between Walter Kuman and Spike Kelly, claimants for the welterweight honors of the country. Kuman is being made to match Young Scotty of Milwaukee, who put a crimp in Bobby Ward's ambitions, knocking the "Bearcat" out in the fifth round in their six-mill mill at the last Beloit bouts, with Battling Cox of Janesville. When properly trained Scotty is a clever and aggressive battler, and would make Cox stop in a fast pace to beat him. Two good lightweight bouts probably be put on for the second and semi-final bout.

Do the truth you know, and you shall learn the truth you need to know.—George Macdonald.

RUSK BID FAREWELL TO CHAMPION TEAM AT GRAND BANQUET

Sixteen Couples Spend Three Hours on Saturday Evening at Joyous Function.—Program Good.

Besides Captain Hemming, Atwood, Dalton, Stuckey and Stewart, with their lady friends, eleven other couples were present on Saturday evening at the Grand Hotel dining room, where a most elaborate banquet was given to the first five names of the members of the first team of the champion Janesville high school squad. The affair was given by the Rusk Lyceum Literary society, in which organization the five regulars are members.

The couples sat down to banquet at seven o'clock, and for over an hour enjoyed the delightful menu consisting of bouillabaisse, radishes, olives, mixed sweet pickles, sirloin of beef, mushroom sauce, wax beans, early June peas, creamed potatoes, fruit salad, orange sherbet, mince pie, as sorters, cake, coffee and wafers.

Before giving the numbers presented on the program, it is fitting here to describe the program card which was so tastefully designed. On the front page of the pamphlet was the announcement of the banquet, its purpose, date, etc.; with the second page given over to the menu. The program was outlined on page three in an artistic design. On the last page, the complete list of the basketball schedule, with the scores of all games, was printed. Also at the bottom of the same page, there was printed the committees who worked faithfully in preparing the refreshments and arranging the program. Following is the program as it was presented:

Toastmaster—President Edward P. Atwood.
Review of Season—Maurice Dalton.
Declaration—Yale Harvard Boat Race—Jessica George.

The Spirit Behind the Team—Edward P. Atwood.
The Humorous Side of Our Trips—Harold Sickney.
How It Seems To Be a Cheerleader—Alfred Denborn.

Remarks, Prof. Guy W. Curtis, coach.
Those who were present were: Misses Hilda Woolf, Marie Matheson, Mary Cronin, Eulalia Drew, Marion Merrill, Caroline Richardson, Phillis Kelly, Dorothy Korst, Evelyn Welsh, Ruth Souman, Peg O'Brien, Jessica George, Marion Fletcher and Helen King. Atwood, Maurice Dalton, Harold Stuckey, Leslie Stewart, Louis Hayes, Walter Craig, Harold Amerohl, and Alvin Dearborn, Leland Hyzer, Roland Schegok, Malcolm Douglas and Prof. G. W. Curtis.

FANS AWAIT ACTION OF BOXING COMMISSION ON PUNISHING TWO BOXERS

Jack Redmond and Pete Childs, two lightweights who were stopped in the bout last week for hitting in the clinches and persisting in roughing it, may get in serious trouble by not obeying the orders of Referee Alvin Duffey. When the mill was stopped the commission representatives seized the gate receipts and the two boxers, by law, are liable to a fine or imprisonment. Referee will be summoned before the state boxing board this week to ascertain their guilt, and as this will be an initial case of its kind, boxing followers in the state are uncertain as to the results.

Gowns For "La Dansant"

The modern dance steps with their quicker and more active movements, have resulted in a shortening of gowns for the Ball and the skirts of many dancing frocks will clear the floor by several inches.

And of course a great many are minus the train.

Among the gowns now exhibited here are the much to be desired frocks in glaze taffetas, pompadours and moire effects; and particularly pretty styles in fancy crepes and brocades, chiffons and laces.

All evening gowns are extremely décollete, some examples being practically sleeveless, light, delicate, transparent laces or tinsels falling gracefully over the shoulders.

Evening gown styles will seem to you who view these fashions never to have been so peculiarly fascinating and clever—nor to offer such great opportunities to be "individual" on these occasions when individuality is so important to one's dress desires.

$4.50 to $50.

Baskets—Kober, 9; Buell, 1; Schaller, 2; Grant, 1; Feirn, 2; Skelly, 1; Day, 1. Free throws—Buell, 2; Kober, 1; Skelly, 1.

Had Many to Think Of.

Learning that his friend had fallen off a roof on which he was at work, the scientific chap hastened to his bedside. "I have an opportunity to prove an old theory here," he said, after obtaining all the details. "They say that when a man falls from a great height he thinks of all his sins before he hits the ground. Now, is that true? Did you do that?" "Well, I didn't have time to think of quite all of them. You see, I only fell five stories!"

REVOLT TALKED OF.

Dispatches from Washington announce that the democratic members in congress from Wisconsin are on the verge of a revolt against the so-called high-handed methods of parceling out federal patronage in Wisconsin by Joseph Davies, national committee man from Wisconsin and commissioner of corporations at Washington. Particularly is the attack of these politicians directed at the postoffice appointments thus far made. In fact rumors of serious revolt has been prevalent in the state for some months but the following clipping from the Christian Science Monitor shows that Wisconsin democrats are not alone among the list of dissatisfied. The Monitor says:

"The situation as to the appointment of a postmaster in one of the larger cities of New England may be taken as fairly illustrating the unreason of the survival of political selections. Out of a field of several candidates, according to one of the city's newspapers and one that has high reputation for its independence, the greatest probability is that one will be selected who is unsuitable for the place, judged by the standard of a good and efficient public service. If this one is appointed and the lack of merit be as represented, the fault will not be chargeable to the president, but to the established process of depending upon certification by party leaders, known as having the local control of federal patronage. The case is typical. That, under the system of long-standing recognition, fit men are ever appointed is rather the fortune of the government than the result of an ideal process. The time has come when quite the reverse of fortunate is the natural consequence.

"Appointment to the postal service on tests of merit has moved up to the place of chief responsibility but it halts there for no better cause than that the parties still demand a remnant of spoils. It has just now had some difficulty in keeping its foothold as to assistant postmasters, whom it is proposed to remove from the shelter of the public law. Public sentiment has always been lagged in support of civil service reform. What has been gained is the result of the stout assertion of the sense and morality of the change by a few resolute leaders. They have won because they were right, not because they were representative of popular demand. But once the new ground has been gained, the advantage has been held, because the showing is always clear that a better service results.

"Eventually, we feel sure, the postmaster will be the public's and not the party's servant and his choice will be removed from the control of men who, by some concession, are regarded as dispensers of favor. The case for bringing the postal service to perfect accord with business standards is complete. The day of its consummation is apparently not near but every defeat of the wish of the people of a city who are concerned for their own interest and the worse defeat of obvious principles of right and sense ought to count in hastening it."

TUESDAY'S PRIMARIES.

Tuesday is primary day. Under the law registered voters of the city will cast their ballots for their choice for the two candidates for commissioner for various supervisors and for other offices which are elective. Apparently the only contest that is really exciting any interest is that of commissioner. There are numerous candidates seeking the nominations. The two highest, the two men receiving the most votes at Tuesday's primary, will be candidates at the regular spring election, April 7th. The Gazette has refrained from making any suggestions during the pre-primary campaign as to the fitness of the various candidates for the office they seek. The field was open to all. The fact that Mr. Millmore, whose term expires, was street commissioner, did not follow that the new man elected would be selected to fill that place. However, the question of the streets has been brought up as the main issue of the campaign, and doubtless the various candidates have been actuated in their discussion of their qualifications of the office by this fact. It remains with the voters to decide which two men they will vote for on April 7th. The pretensions of the candidates are varied and it is to be hoped the two best men available will be selected. It is unfortunate that the old talk of recall has entered into the campaign as well as severe criticism of the present city officials and their actions in the two troublesome years that have marked the initial experiment in the commission form of government. It is easy enough for a man on the outside to criticize the actions of the men in office, and yet another thing to perform the duties when elected. In this election there should be no question of east or west side of the river, no ward divisions or question of locality. The best men possible should be selected Tuesday and then the best of the two elected on the regular election day.

WET OR DRY?

It is unfortunate that the question of license or no license is to come up at the coming spring election. Janesville has not yet recovered from the conflict of a year ago, the recall, and its citizens, who have been divided on many issues for over a year past, were really just becoming acquainted again. The glorious campaign for the hospital fund, the raising of the twenty odd thousand dollars for the proposed Janesville fair, all were evidences that there was to be a concerted and united action to boost the town. The liquor question being introduced just at this time, is a direct reflection upon the present city administration and whether it wins or loses means dissatisfaction that will really undo all the work of conciliating the two factions that has been going on quietly for months, and meant much for the future prosperity of the city. It is certain that the bringing up of this question at this time has seriously hindered the financing of a factory that was in process of formation and will arouse a spirit of unrest that can not but have a deleterious effect not only on the proposed fair, but on other projects now under consideration. It does not seem that there is sufficient reason for the question being raised at this time to warrant its success and it is unfortunate for many reasons that it is to be brought up.

THE JUDGESHIP.

There will be no vote on the question of the municipal judgeship on Tuesday next. This election comes April 7th, at the regular spring election when the whole country will vote on the question. There are three candidates for the office all Janesville men—Carpenter, Maxwell, and Lange. All three are bringing every energy to convince the voters of their fitness for the office. It is a question to be decided by the voters at large and not one for suggestion as to the fitness of the various candidates to be taken up through the editorial columns of the newspapers. All are non-partisan candidates. The law makes them so. All are peculiarly fitted for the position. The voters must take their choice and make it wisely for the office is for the unexpired term of Judge Pfeiffer, who resigned to accept the probate judgeship to which he was elected a year ago.

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS.

Now that spring is here, officially, it might be well for the city officials to take a look over their city property and see what changes and alterations are to be made in their sidewalks, crosswalks and streets. It is suggested that one of the first places they visit, if they make a tour of inspection, is the Court House park, and one visit will be enough to convince them that something radical should be done at once to either repair or rebuild the present far walks. They are full of pit holes for the unwary and need repair, and that immediately. The same is true of many crosswalks, where the iron gutters are not long enough to reach across the whole walk and bits of wood have been added as a substitute. Damage suits may result, so it is best to be beforehand.

Clean up. Make Janesville a city beautiful if possible. With the prospect of this city being a member of the proposed feeder for the Federal league, with a Janesville fair coming in August, the city has been placed on the maps, all of them, and visitors will enjoy coming to the "Spotless City" and talking of their visit afterwards.

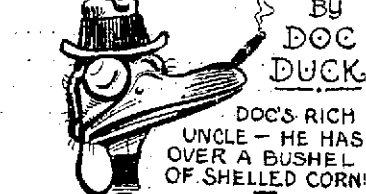

Everyone tangoes these days. To be in it one must tango or sit way back in the rear. With all the talk against it the dance has come to stay evidently, and there is no use objecting. Fortunately, Janesville is not as crazy over the subject as some cities but still there is a mild form of insanity prevalent.

Spring is here, but really that old chap, Winter, still hangs on to let us know that he has paid us a visit. The boys with their marbles and the girls with their roller skates do not relish this taste of snow when it appears.

With England trying to get its "Uster" off and Mexico seeking to hold onto Torreón, and Villa trying to capture it, the war news is not a bit scarce these days. Nothing heard of the Jap invasion for some months.

It is going to be a case of come one, come all tomorrow, and the more the primary day always means lots of fun at the polls and lots of speculations.

The Winner.
She had admirers by the score, When summering down by the shore, And each of them in time proposed Just as young men are all supposed To do when'er they meet a peach, Down at the lighted bathing beach. The season over with at last, Her ardent beach admirers passed From memory as quick as snail. The sequel to the tale is that She married one who stayed at home All summer long and didn't roam From business drudgery and such, The kind of man who waxes rich And doesn't peddle diamond rings And pretty compliments and things. Thirty Dollars Worth of Anguish.
A local dealer in furnaces has issued a pamphlet regarding asphyxiation from leaky heaters. He says if a man returns home and finds his wife asphyxiated the expense of his negligence, in failing to have the furnace repaired will be as follows:
Funeral expenses.....$140.00
Loss of time (four days).....12.00
Preacher.....5.00
Singers.....5.00
Anguish of mind.....30.00
Total.....$192.00

The $30 worth of anguish will at once call to mind the increased cost of living and other unpleasant subjects. It is not possible to get so much anguish for $30 as it used to be and the market quotation on anguish is liable to keep right on rising. After all is said and done, it seems that $30 for anguish is a bit too con in the pamphlet follow:

Housekeeper's salary, (six months).....$120.00
Cost of courtin' wife No. 2.....100.00
Wedding trip for new wife.....150.00
The grand total.....$370.00
While a new furnace costs only $175, a new furnace is thus $507 cheaper than a new wife. Although it is a very frank businesslike proposition, there is $30 worth of sentiment mixed up in the thing which sort of takes the curse off as it was never supposed that there was that amount of sentiment in the furnace business. The pamphlet is certainly interesting and instructive.

AT THE APOLLO.

The entire civilized world stood aghast during the progress of the famous trial of Mendel Beilis in Kiev, Russia. A Christian boy had been found murdered and Beilis, a poor Jewish laborer, was accused of the crime because the body had been found in the brick kiln where he was employed. It was a hard enough trial for a peaceable man to stand accused of murder but this case attracted the attention of the world because it was the murder of the boy as a means for accusing the entire Jewish race of ritual murder by claiming that the boy was killed by Jews who wanted Christian blood for some religious service. Their object was in this way to bring about an exodus of the Jewish population of Russia.

As soon as the news was published, not only rabbis but Christian ministers of all denominations from every corner of the world filed their protests with the press of all nations in all languages. So preposterous and ridiculous was the charge that it was a foregone conclusion that Beilis would be acquitted. But the "Black 107" kept this tide of sentiment beyond the border of the land of darkness and to the Russians so long in ignorance of the doings of the outside world, the protest was lost. The conspirators worked up a circumstantial case but after a long trial a jury brought in an acquittal.

This picture was enacted by a company of Russian players who, have witnessed the persecution and oppression that have marked the shameful history of the land they were born in and the spectator will see a portrayal of the grief and anguish of a suffering race that will make his offer thanks to heaven that he lives under the protection of the Stars and Stripes in a land where no despot reigns and all men are free and equal.

The picture will be shown at the Apollo on Tuesday and Wednesday.

There are numerous societies in Russia composed of anti-Semitic agitators who are in league with the secret police and the oppressive church dignitaries. The most powerful of these societies is the one known as "The Black 107" and they seize upon every opportunity to create persecution and pogrom. It is a notorious fact that this "Black 107" seized upon the murder of the boy as a means for accusing the entire Jewish race of ritual murder by claiming that the boy

---And the Worst is Yet to Come

Winter Notes By Geo. J. Kellogg,
March 20, 1914.

Thermometers vary 10 degrees. Some government thermometers are high up on steam heated blocks and do not record the true temperature. No thermometer hanging on a wood building or living room will give the true temperature. The coldest place is 50 feet away from any building on the north side of a tree, one foot from the ground. A self-registering thermometer will record the coldest any time during the night. One night in January it was the coldest at about midnight, and in the morning it had risen 18 degrees.

The following is the number of days of the winter at zero and below, the aggregate, and the coldest day.

1874-5	47 days	742	coldest 30.	A winter with a snow blockade.
1875-6	14 days	120	coldest 17.	A muddy, open winter.
1876-7	49 days	410	coldest 30.	Good sleighing part of the winter.
1877-8	5 days	24	coldest 13.	An open winter, a mud blockade.
1878-9	28 days	236	coldest 23.	But little sleighing.
1879-80	15 days	106	coldest 26.	Mild, short and open winter.
1880-1	52 days	696	coldest 37.	Ry. ice and snow blockade.
1881-2	10 days	32	coldest 14.	Just a mud winter.
1882-3	47 days	557	coldest 26.	Snow in January; rain in February.

WILL FLOOD RESERVOIR IN LA CROSSE COUNTY TO CONSERVE FLOOD WATER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Antigo, Wis., March 23.—From 35,000 to 37,000 acres, an area equivalent to one and one-half townships, most of it in Langlade county will be flooded by the two gigantic reservoirs to be established by the Wolf River Improvement Co.

The dams, twenty-six and twenty feet high, will be ten miles apart, situated in the towns of Ainsworth and Elcho. Thirty or more settlers and their families living on the site of the proposed reservoirs will be forced to move before the spring of 1915. Lands that will be overflowed are now being purchased. The lakes to be formed will have many miles of attractive shore line and several large islands. The purpose of the reservoirs is to conserve the spring freshets and flood waters so as to make practicable the regulation of Wolf river. This will be for the benefit of factories using water power including large paper mills at Neenah and Appleton.

The cost of the reservoir is estimated at $3,000,000.

IF YOU WANT THE BEST
BUTTER JOIN THE NAVY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, March 23.—The Navy Department has just awarded its contract for butter for Uncle Sam's bluejackets. The total was 725,000 pounds—and it is interesting to note that probably few American families will have as good spreading for their bread as the sailors.

Uncle Sam demands the best. Sailors are cranky about their butter. In the old days when the bluejackets were given anything the market afforded his complaints were so insistent that a plan was adopted that gives him about the best butter money can buy.

FOND DU LAC TO VOTE ON COMMISSION PLAN
IN SPIRITED ELECTION

Fond du Lac, Wis., March 23.—Today was election day for Fond du Lac. Whether or not the city will in the future be governed by a commission was the question up for settlement.

Agitation for the change has been strong and there was but little trouble in securing enough signatures for the petition calling for the special election.

CLERK BLAMES THEFT TO SALOON GAMBLING

Proprietors of Saloon Found Guilty of Running Gambling House.

Chicago, March 23.—Maurice Sabath and his son, Harry Sabath, were found guilty today of keeping a gambling house in the saloon formerly owned by them. Attention was directed to the offense of which they were convicted by a statement by Fred Bell, a grocery clerk, accused of embezzlement. Bell declared that he lost the money he was accused of stealing, while gambling in Sabath's saloon. Judge Fell who heard Bell's plea, refused leniency and said he would interest charitable women so that Mrs. Bell would not suffer while her husband was in prison.

The Sabaths denied that there had ever been gambling in their place.

KING DIES IN POVERTY

His Nation Regrets TO REPLACE HIS HONOR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
St. Petersburg, March 23.—The last of the "Kings of Jerusalem," Prince Michael of Lussignan, has just died here in poverty and misery. Prince Michael was the last offshoot of Lussignan the Crusader, later King of Jerusalem and Cyprus. King Louis of Lussignan fled to Russia when the Turks captured Cyprus in 1832.

Czar Nicholas I made him a Captain in his guard. Ludwig hoped for years that Russia would help to replace him on this throne but he finally became resigned to his fate and when the Grecoian throne was offered to the ex-King he was so apathetic that he declined it. In 1868 Ludwig began an action against Turkey for $50,000,000 for property which he claimed had been confiscated. He never received a penny.

Ludwig VI. died in 1834 at the age of 77, having lived for years on Russian charity. His son, Prince Michael, was then 24. The latter spent his entire time dreaming about the heroic deeds of his crusader ancestors.

In a comic opera uniform of general with three crowns on his epaulets—which he claimed to be the legitimate King. Michael was for years a well known figure in the streets of St. Petersburg. In the last few years he has been little more than a beggar. He died among paupers and beggars in the miserable ward of the poorest charity hospital in St. Petersburg.

GOVERNMENT BUYS LAND FROM LUMBER COMPANY FOR INDIAN RESERVATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Marquette, March 23.—The United States government has just closed a deal for the purchase of 3,200 acres of land in Forest county from the Keith Hiles Lumber company which is to be used to establish farm homes for the Pottowatamie Indians. The land lies east and north of Stone Lake. Other tracks are near Wabeno, Forest county and in the reserve part of Marquette county.

Homes are to be erected on the various tracts and an academy for the instruction of Indian children is to be established and maintained. It is said on the Marquette county tract that "Mother Jones" had been taken from the train at Walsenburg by the military authorities, while on her way to Trinidad. "Mother Jones" was going through the place and as far as I know there is absolutely no charge against her. I hope the supreme court will act in the matter at once.

"MOTHER" JONES IS TAKEN A PRISONER

After Week of Liberty She Is Arrested By Colorado Officer and Placed Under Guard.

Walsenburg, Colo., March 23.—After a week's freedom "Mother" Mary Jones is a military prisoner. She was taken from a south bound Colorado and Southern train here at 7:30 by Captain Nickerson, acting under order of Adjutant-General John Chase, and lodged in the county hospital under military guards.

Trinidad, Colo., March 23.—It's a plain case of kidnapping, nothing else, declared John R. Lawson, international board member of the United Mine Workers, when advised that "Mother Jones" had been taken from the train at Walsenburg by the military authorities, while on her way to Trinidad. "Mother Jones" was going through the place and as far as I know there is absolutely no charge against her. I hope the supreme court will act in the matter at once.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

Written and publication authorized by Jas. J. Sennett and to be paid for by him at the rate of 25c per inch.

To My Fellow
Workingmen:

There has been an erroneous report circulated, that if I was nominated and elected Commissioner I would reduce the daily wages of the laboring class. Such a report to those that have worked with me side by side for about five years, in all kinds of weather, at all kinds of tasks, know that such a statement is utterly false.

For my other co-workers of the laboring class, I will say that at all times and in all places, I have upheld the workingman and if nominated and elected will prove my statements.

To All Voters of Janesville:

You should vote for and elect James J. Sennett your next Commissioner because he is the man with PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE on our daily streets, and in our Council Chamber.

3 YEARS CITY STREET COMMISSIONER.

6 YEARS AN ALDERMAN.

If nominated and elected, I will fight for lower taxes, cleaner and better streets, cleaner sidewalks, will do my utmost according to my own judgment for the welfare of Janesville.

Yours respectfully,

Jas. J. Sennett

Political announcement. Written and authorized by C. K. Miltimore and paid for by him at the rate of 25c per inch.

WHEN in business for myself I paid thousands of dollars to Janesville working men. I always considered labor worthy of its hire and compensated it accordingly.

Under the old form of government I was Alderman under Mayor Baines and Mayor Thoroughgood, being Chairman of the Highway, Street and Bridge Committee. Later I was appointed assessor and have at all times supported, labored and fought for LOWER TAXES AND LESS POLITICS.

I am not controlled by any private or political interests. I have always endeavored to serve the general welfare of all the people in the city.

PORTAGE BUSINESS MEN PROTEST MAIL SERVICE FROM EASTERN POINTS

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Portage, Wis., March 23.—Portage business men today were ready to protest to government officials because of the delay in the delivery of mails from the west. Sunday over thirty pouches were held here for thirty-six hours and many parcels were not delivered until late today.

Railroad men lay the blame of postal authorities in this district who, they claim, issued retrenchment orders. This, they add, has resulted in a scarcity of men to work the mails on the trains and the pouches have to be held up until another train can care for them. Mail is held in this fashion at Portage, LaCrosse, Winona and Wabasha before being delivered.

Natural Order Reversed.
As a rule darkness induces sleep. With many animals, however, the reverse is the case—as with the bats and owls. This reversal of the usual order has been brought about by the nature of the feeding habits.

Earth's Coldest Spot.
The lowest temperature ever recorded on the earth was taken at Werchojansk, in the interior of Siberia, January 15, 1885. It was 90 degrees and a fraction below zero. Werchojansk is in the latitude of the pole of cold. There the earth is frozen to a depth of about 100 feet, and in the warmest weather it never thaws.

Rather Too Boastful.
The ancient dwellers in Arcady boasted that their terrific race came into existence before the moon herself, but they were probably ignorant of the period they claimed for their ancestry. They must needs have mounted back in time some 57,000,000 years, in which case their race would be hallowed indeed by prehistoric antiquity.—Kansas City Star.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

PERSONAL PUBLICITY.
Many a good article has failed for lack of proper advertising. To make a product a success in these days, it must not only have merit, but that merit must be advertised.

Every man and woman needs personal publicity of the right kind. What is personal publicity?

Well, personal publicity is advertising the inside of oneself by the outside. For instance, careful grooming is personal publicity. Anyone who wants to advertise himself in the right way must be well groomed with all that that means in the way of carefully kept nails, accurately adjusted clothing, well polished shoes, trousers in press, tidily arranged hair, and above all, perfect personal cleanliness.

As Emerson says, if you look as though you had slept in your clothes, most people will think you have, whether rightly or wrongly.

A pleasant, well modulated voice is personal publicity of the very best sort. It often inspires confidence and liking even more quickly than an attractive face. I sometimes turn in a crowd to see who is the fortunate possessor of a pleasant voice. Speak to a person over the telephone in a well modulated voice and you have prepossessed him in your favor even before he sees you.

Carefully selected clothes are excellent personal publicity. Nor do clothes need to be expensive to be good advertising. They should be tasteful, suitable to the occasion and as harmonious as possible with one's own peculiar style. An advertiser usually selects some particular trademark or picture which identifies with his product. In the same way I think it is good personal publicity to have some distinctive feature about one's clothes that stands for one's individuality. For instance one girl I know never appears without a little touch of red somewhere about her. This tiny flash of color is somehow typical of her vivacious and rather defiant personality, and I like both it and her.

Morals are more important than manners, but manners are more conspicuous than morals. We get acquainted with a man's manners long before we do with his morals, and are apt to judge accordingly. The man who knows the usages of polite society, and has a pleasant presence, a cordial handshake and the ability to talk about little things easily and without embarrassment, advertises himself favorably every time he meets anyone. I said "the man" because I didn't want to struggle with the double pronoun, but that applies equally of course to both men and women.

Needless to say, if an article is to be a lasting success it must have merit behind the advertising. By the same token there must be something inside you for people to like after your campaign of personal publicity has persuaded them to get acquainted with it.

But that, as the French put it, goes without saying.

(3) There is no harm in standing for a few minutes to talk, though really it seems to me that one should have said everything necessary, beyond the last "Thank you," before reaching the girl's door.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is a girl of thirteen years old enough to have a boy friend?
(2) Which do you prefer: Blondes or brunettes?
(3) Will far be worn on dresses and coats this spring?
(4) What will be the leading color in spring coats?

(1) I hope you have a lot of boy friends, dearie, but don't be "mushy" with them. Just be a good hearty loyal friend to the boys and stop them quick if they try to do any hugging and kissing. Always remember that a boy who is really a gentleman will always treat a girl with respect.

(2) I love them both, little friend, if they have sweet dispositions.
(3) Black and white checks will be very popular; also checks in dull greens, red and browns. Green and red will be much worn and a tan that is almost yellow. You are young enough to wear one of the very bright colored coats.

Women Worth While

Viscountess Chinda.

By Selene Armstrong Harmon.
A CALLER at the Japanese embassy in Washington is ushered by the most correct of butlers into a big drawing room, which, to the smallest detail, is furnished with the conventional elegance of the average American home. Then a diminutive woman, gowned as any American woman of wealth and fashion is gowned, enters, and with a cordiality of manner that becomes her wondrously well gives the conventional greeting.

"How do you do. I am glad to see you."

The little woman is Viscountess Chinda, wife of the Japanese ambassador to the United States, and one of the most progressive, wide-awake women of the entire diplomatic corps. She has adopted the clothing, the speech and many of the social customs of American women with that ease and efficiency with which the Japanese as a people have assimilated much that is best in occidental civilization. She acquired English a good many years ago, when, from 1889 to 1893, her husband was consul at San Francisco. Since that time, however, Viscountess Chinda has seen many lands and many peoples, and has moved in the society of a number of great capitals.

Madame Chinda has been the mother of six children, of whom four are living. Looking into her youthful, unlined face, it is with some thing like amazement that one learns she is also twice a grandmother. The elder of the grandchildren, Haruko Yamanaka, is eleven. The younger, Kinuko (meaning "Little Silk") is six and was born in Paris when her father was attached to the Japanese embassy there.

The embassy over which Madame Chinda presides as hostess in Washington is conducted as is any well-regulated American house. It is American in all its details, except that the servants are Japanese. The cuisine, which is also entirely American, is occasionally varied with a favorite native dish of the viscount or his wife.

Madame Chinda first adopted occidental dress when her husband was appointed by his government consul at San Francisco. The wife of a missionary to Japan showed her how to replace the gaily embroidered kimono and obi with the stays, shirtwaist and skirt, stockings and pumps worn by women of western countries. At first, Madame Chinda confesses, it was all horribly uncomfortable and very, very awkward. Now she would be most uncomfortable in native costume—that is, in any land except Japan. The topic of the latest fashions possessed for her the same absorbing interest that it holds for the average American woman and she is equally at ease in a Paris creation or in the latest cry from some fashionable American shop.

Household Hints

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
If when washing dark blue or black cotton material the water is made real blue when starching the white spots will not show when ironing.

A novel way of sweetening grape fruit is the use of honey in place of sugar. If the fruit is to be used for breakfast, prepare it the night before, loosening the pulp from the skin and membrane; then pour over it enough honey to cover. In the morning the flavor will be found excellent.

If a piece of bread tied in a bit of muslin is dropped into the water in which greens are being boiled it will absorb the unpleasant odor.

For nasal catarrh there is nothing better than salt water snuffed up the nose.

Miss Helene Young.

Miss Helene Young of Los Angeles, arrested in Chicago on a charge of forgery, has been given a stay of justice by Judge Baldwin in order that she may nurse her sister, Mrs. Laura Hall, who is dying of cancer. The fact developed that Miss Young forged checks of $60 and $75 on a Los Angeles bank in order to take her sister to Chicago for treatment. In view of the circumstances, the judge thought leniency due her.

bake in a moderate oven thirty minutes, cool slightly, turn on a dish and serve with cream sauce.
Eggs With Tomatoes.—Fry six eggs on both sides in hot lard, season with salt and arrange in a shallow dish. Fry in hot lard, a large onion chopped fine and a cupful of tomatoes. Add a spoonful each of flour and chopped parsley and stir well. Add two cupfuls of water, a bit of strong pepper and salt to taste and simmer a few moments. Pour over the eggs and serve hot.
Bread Omelet.—Mix equal quantities of fine bread crumbs and cream, a teaspoonful of each. Break one ounce of butter into small bits and add to it a saltspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper and one grate of nutmeg. When the cream has been absorbed by the bread beat it until smooth with a fork, then mix into it the butter and three well-beaten eggs. Fry like an ordinary omelet.
Eggs With Cheese.—Butter the sides and bottom of a shallow baking dish and cover the bottom with bread crumbs; drop in raw eggs to cover the crumbs, but do not crowd or break. Sprinkle over this a layer of grated cheese, season with salt and pepper, add a small cup of the milk and a few bits of butter and bake in a moderate oven until the eggs are set and the top of the dish a delicate brown.
Oxtail Soup.—Buy a large oxtail, clean thoroughly and put it to simmer in about two quarts of water, one-half teaspoonful of salt and let it cook for six hours. Then add one-half pound of split peas and let all cook until done.

K C Baking Powder is guaranteed absolutely pure and wholesome. There is no Rochelle salts, no harmful residue left in the food that is leavened with K C.

Even the most delicate can eat hot breads raised with K C without distress. Try K C Baking Powder breads if yeast-raised bread does not agree with you.

SHARON MAN BURNED
TO DEATH IN HOME

Sparks From Pipe Set Fire to Clothes While Man is Asleep on Couch
—Rev. Brigham Dies.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Sharon, March 21.—Martin McNeil, age fifty-five years, and a retired farmer in Sharon, was found dead Friday morning in his home within three feet of his doorway, being burned to death by flames supposed to have started from his pipe, igniting his clothes and burning his body to a crisp.

The body was discovered by Charles Lami, and it is thought that McNeil had laid down on the couch while smoking and on falling asleep the pipe fell on his chest setting his clothes afire. Evidently when he realized his danger the man started for the doorway to escape from the house but before he could reach the open air dropped to the floor powerless to deal the flames or to smother them by rolling. His clothes were burned off the upper portion of his body, and his face, chest and hands burned to a crisp. Several pedestrians passing his residence on Thursday evening and were attracted by the smell of smoke, but as there is a blacksmith shop nearby gave the matter no attention.

Despite the terrible way the man's body was burned, the fire did not spread to the house and there were no signs of the flames, except that the couch was slightly charred. McNeil made his home on a farm at South Sharon during his entire life except the last eight months when he made Sharon his residence. He was unmarried and was respected by the community as a hard working and honest man. Funeral arrangements have not been made as his sister is expected from Tacoma, Washington, to direct burial.

Rev. Brigham Dies.

The funeral was held from St. Mary's Mission chapel yesterday at 2 o'clock. Burial in Oakwood cemetery. He is survived by one daughter and three sons.

FOLA LA FOLLETTE
SUBJECT OF ATTACK

Anti-Suffragist Scores Daughter of Wisconsin Senator for Spurning Husband's Cognomen.

A Washington dispatch tells the interesting story of an attack by a leading anti-suffragist on Fola La Follette, daughter of Senator La Follette. Miss Minnie Bronson, secretary of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, issued a red-hot statement tonight attacking Miss Fola La Follette, wife of George Middleton and daughter of Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, charging that she would refuse to assume the names of her husbands. Miss Bronson said: "Perhaps the most amusing feature of this insane twaddle, if it can be called amusing, is the plea of Miss La Follette (Mrs. George Middleton) of the parenthesis is mine—for the right of a woman to retain her maiden name after marriage and to be called Miss instead of Mrs., because 'it is no business of the world's, whether a woman is married or not.'"

Prefers Father's Name.
"Now Miss La Follette, although a married woman, prefers her father's name to her husband's, but what right has she to call La Follette her maiden name? Is her name her father's name or is it Smith, or Jones, or Brown, or whatever name her mother bore before she was married, and even then, was not that her mother's father's name?"

"It would seem, therefore, that Miss La Follette instead of retaining her La Follette as she claims she does, has become extraneously attached to name and the only solution for such a tangled web would be to go back to first principles and call all women Eves and all men Adams."

"Also with our present standard of law and morals it might be necessary for the future Miss La Follette to carry their marriage certificates with them when traveling with their husbands, or does the feminist go so far as to denounce our present standard of this matter also?"

Sees Step in Dark.
"Ideas once accepted are not long in being translated into action, and this temple of liberty to which the vote is the key will prove, not a temple of liberty at all, but a step in the dark which leads to the destruction of all the progress for women which have been built up at such cost to humanity."

"Anti-suffragists for years have been derided for their exaggerated fears of what sort of a world this so-called woman movement would lead to. Well, how do they stand as prophets now? All predictions as the result of this movement have been advocated by suffragists-feminists in New York this winter."

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If tongue is coated or if cross, feverish, constipated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated, is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

Isn't listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, shrunken throat raw, doesn't sleep or act, irritably, has a sick, achy, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour-bile and fermenting food pass out of the bowels and you have a well and happy child again. Children love this harmless "Fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has instructions for babies, children of all ages. Give it to your child plainly on the bottle. Remember, it's the genuine "Fruit Laxative," and you can't get it any other way.
